The menu for next week is 2
The menu is on our web site.

It has been lovely to see classes across school marking World Mental Health Week this week. We've had mindfulness belly breathing activities during story time, mindfulness colouring, assemblies in both Key Stage One and Key Stage Two delivered by Kate and Andy from With Me in Mind, stretching and breathing with the relaxation rainbow and time exploring our senses in the woodlands.

Classes 2, 3 and 4 enjoyed Skeleton Day on Thursday and even had a go at turning their grown-ups into skeletons! As always, please take a look at our Twitter account, @thorpehesleypri, to see what else we've been up to.

IT Equipment for School

In order to ensure that our children have the best chance possible to be confident in their times tables, we are desperate for IPADS or other touch-screen devices that children can access TT Rockstars on in school. We are therefore putting a plea out to any parents who work in companies who regularly update their IT equipment to consider donating any devices to school that are no longer needed. We would be very grateful for any donations.

This week you should have received on your personal email...

TT Rock Stars – Dress up day
Infant Dinner Choice
Fire, Fire Topic – KS1
Flu Vaccinations
Parents survey

Well done to the following children who are our most accurate rockers this week:

1. Nicole B, Y4
 2. Amelia T, Y4
 3. Kate B, Y4
 4. Vinnie B, Y4
 5. Millie R, Y4
- Great work Year 4!

Linda 'Lollipop'

You may have seen two of our gorgeous, kind pupils out collecting last week for a retirement gift for our fabulous School Crossing Patrol Warden, Linda.

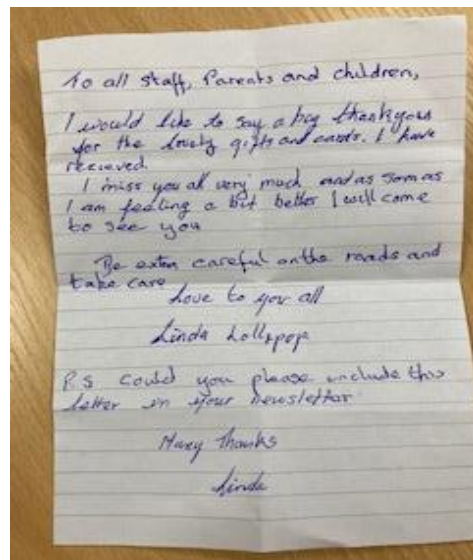

They visited Linda this weekend and presented her with a gift on behalf of our Thorpe families to thank her for her 27 years of helping children across the road. Always with a smile, an amazing memory for children's names, birthday sweets, dog treats, Christmas chocolates and seasonal flashing Rudolph nose with reindeer antlers - all in heels!

Thank you to our lovely families who organised this. Please see a letter below from Linda.
